

Angie Rawls is a retired choral director having served thirty years in the Pearl Public School District in Pearl, Mississippi. During that time, she was privileged to serve as a director and accompanist for a host of junior high and high school choral groups and musical productions. She was a National Board-Certified Teacher for twenty years during her public education career. Angie is continuing to impact students as a private piano and voice teacher and also as a choral director at Belhaven University.

A frequent adjudicator and clinician, Angie has served as an adjudicator for festivals in Mississippi, Arkansas, Alabama, and Louisiana. She was the All-State Honor Clinician in Louisiana and Arkansas.

Angie has been a member of the Mississippi Music Educators Association (MMEA) and the Mississippi chapter of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) for over thirty years and has served in various positions on their boards. The most recent positions include Past-President of MMEA and Repertoire-Specific Coordinator (ACDA).

Angie is the recipient of several awards. She was bestowed the honor of Pearl High School and Pearl Public School District Teacher of the Year for the 2022-2023 school year. She received MMEA Outstanding Music Educator Award in 2020, the National Federation of High Schools Heart of the Arts Award in 2019, and the ACDA Ernestine Ferrell Award in 2018.

Angie received her higher Bachelor of Music Degree from Millsaps College and her Master of Music Education Degree from Mississippi College.

Angie is married to Peyton who is also a musician. They serve on the music team at McLaurin Heights Baptist Church in Pearl, Mississippi. They have two equally musical children. Jaron is forever nineteen and resides in Heaven. Melody is a choral music education major at the University of Southern Mississippi.