

Meet Our Clinician

Dr. Alexandra Arnold

ELEMENTARY HONOR CHOIR, 2025

Dr. Alexandra G. Arnold, a native of MS, is an instructor of music and the recruitment and enrollment specialist at William Carey University. Dr. Arnold is the director of Carey's premier a cappella group, Carey On, an ensemble that specializes in pop/contemporary genres and performs throughout the Southeast United States. She also assists with the prestigious Carey Chorale and renowned Worship Choir. She teaches many choral music ed courses at the undergraduate and graduate level. Dr. Arnold also has a voice studio where she instructs students in developing technique through a variety of repertoires.

Before William Carey University, Dr. Arnold was the choral director of the award-winning and superior-ranked Advanced Women's, Beginner Women's, and Middle School Choirs at Southaven High School in Southaven, MS. After her time at Southaven, she went on to teach elementary music at Glade Elementary in Laurel, MS where she established a thriving theater program. She then assisted with the Jones College Concert Choir at Jones College, in Ellisville, MS.

Arnold completed her DA in Choral Music Education at William Carey University and her MME and BME-Choral from the University of Southern Mississippi. She currently lives in Ellisville with her husband, Todd, and two beautiful daughters, Lila and Collier.